"In life I believe we should lean forward, lean into the wind. Don't die with your dreams still in you. Now is the time to live your dreams. Now is the time to love what you do. Now is the time to make a decision, move on, stick by your convictions and create the life you want and deserve. We can do that.here.together." -author Taylor Sparks In the indispensable female guide to life "What's a Girl To Do In A Big City If She Can't Dance?," author Taylor Sparks takes a serious yet humorous look at the seven crossroads that most women come to in their lifetime and shows you how to recognize and acknowledge common areas of difficulty: How to love your body for the shape it's in-right now The necessities of female relationships Heal yourself of the "pick-me syndrome" and have valued relationships with men Career stagnation and discovering your intentions When to seek council and why No matter what crossroad you're at now, whether you're concerned about body image, relationships, or your mother who is still getting on your nerves, let "What's a Girl To Do In A Big City If She Can't Dance?" help you build a better life.
